RE: Purchase of GCSE English Literature Texts

As you may know, students studying GCSE English Literature will need their own copy of each text that they study. This is because they cannot take these texts into the exam, so your son needs to make notes on the text in order to memorise key quotes and ideas. For GCSE English Literature your son will study 3 texts: A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens; An Inspector Calls by J. B. Priestley; and Macbeth by William Shakespeare.

The first text that your son will study is A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens. Your son will need to bring his own copy of the text to all lessons when he begins Year 10 in September.

It is essential that he has his own text so that he is well prepared for the exam and has plenty of high-quality revision notes.

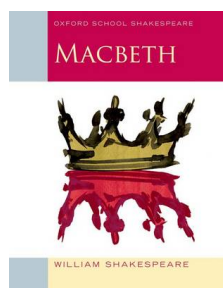

The editions we want you to purchase are the ones below (it's essential that all students have the same page numbers):

£9.99*
Heinemann

£2.50*
Wordsworth Classics

£6.99*
Oxford School Shakespeare
(Paperback)

*Waterstones current retail prices – you may find these editions at a cheaper price on Amazon or Wordery.com

If there are any issues, please do not hesitate to contact me or your son's English teacher, who will be happy to help.

Many thanks for your support,
